

If every South African citizen register to vote and votes in Election 2014, we will as a Nation practise our democratic right to freedom.

But

If we don't vote, then we allow other people to take that right away from us without any effort.

This can happen:

Our constitution protecects:

- Property rights
- Language rights
- Press freedom
- The right to decent education

You have the power to protect our Constitution with your vote!

Here's what you need to know about registration:

- If you've registered before, you're still registered.
- If you've moved since the last election, you must re-register where you live.
- You can register on the weekend of the 9th and 10th November by taking your ID to your nearest voting station.
- On this weekend, all voting stations will be open from 8am till 5pm.
- To check whether you're registered, SMS your ID to 32810.
- If you need help in registering, call the IEC on 0800 11 8000(Toll free) or email on iec@elections.org.za.

In this election, every vote will count. So go out and register to win!
