THE ISLAND OF EDEN

A few million years ago, this exotic Creole island was the scene of volcanic activity. Today, things are calmer, and Mauritius is an island of luscious landscapes in the glossy Indian Ocean.

It's an ideal holiday destination for South Africans, with activities like sunset cruises, horse riding, dolphin tours and scuba diving on offer. You'll be kept occupied – if that's what you want, of course.

Mauritius really is much more than a beach when it comes to attractions.

There's bird watching and hiking in the forested and mountainous interiors.

There's world-class diving and snorkelling off the coast.

There are boat trips to flawless unspoilt islets, excursions to magnificent botanical gardens and visits to colonial plantation houses. So what do you fancy? Whatever it is, you're spoilt for choice.

With so much to do and see, you'll leave with lasting memories of the beautiful surroundings, the friendly locals, the Creole cuisine and the pristine white beaches that are all part of this much-loved destination.

Our time zone is UTC +04:00 – just 2 hours' difference from South Africa, so no jet lag!

If you are a South African citizen, you won't need a visa.

Mauritius has a mild tropical maritime climate all year round, with two seasons: a warm humid summer from November to April and a cool dry winter from June to September.

October and May are known as the transition months. The warmest months are January and February with a 29°C average day maximum temperature. The coolest months are July and August when average night minimum temperatures drop down to 16.4°C.

The currency is the Mauritian Rupee and the official languages are English and French. The plug points in Mauritius are different, so do your homework and make sure you bring the right adaptor.

Mauritian culture is very "laid-back", so bikinis, dresses, shorts and slip-slops are quite okay – pack for an informal summer – but remember that some resorts have a smart casual dress code after 6pm.

TOP 10 THINGS TO DO

CHOICES, CHOICES, CHOICES.

In Mauritius, you can relax by the pool, sip on cocktails and be pampered all day, but there are many other adventures to enjoy outside the resorts:

1. EXPERIENCE AN ISLET ESCAPADE on the south-east coast. A boat will take you to the 25-hectare nature reserve of Ile aux Aigrettes. Here you'll find indigenous plants and coastal ebony forests, or discover the marine environment by snorkelling or taking a trip on a glass-bottom boat in the protected marine park of Blue Bay.
2. RUM, ANYONE? It wouldn't be a tropical island without a sailor's favourite tipple. Visit one of the distilleries, where local sugar cane is used to brew exquisite spiced rum – in a whole range of flavours. Yo ho ho!
3. THE SEVEN COLOURED EARTH. You've seen nothing like this natural phenomenon: The volcanic rock of the island has resulted in brilliantly coloured sand in seven distinct colours: red, brown, violet, green, blue, purple and yellow.
4. THE DODO: GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN. See the remains of the extinct flightless bird at the National History Museum in Port Louis, home to one of the few remaining dodo skeletons.
5. CLIMB THE VOLCANO. DRIVE INLAND TO TROU AUX CERFS, an extinct volcano overlooking the town of Curepipe. And if you like a good hike, you can make your way to the top of the volcano for awesome views over the island and crater-lake.
6. CAN YOU SAY PAMPLEMOUSSES? VISIT THE BOTANICAL GARDENS. The oldest botanical garden in the southern hemisphere is located near Port Louis in the district of Pamplemousses. It's one of the world's most admired gardens. And it's pronounced "pump-ler-moose". So now you know.
7. VISIT THE BEAUTIFUL MAHESWARNATH MANDIR HINDU TEMPLE, definitely worth several photographs, and known locally as "Grand Shivala Triolet" in the village of Triolet.
8. ILE AUX CERFS. Make a memorable visit to some of the world's most beautiful beaches – right here in Mauritius.
9. VISIT VICTORIA 1840 ART MUSEUM & RESTAURANT in the village of Trou d'Eau Douce in the east. It's an old sugar-cane factory that has been converted into a contemporary art museum and restaurant.
10. THERE'S NO FOOD LIKE STREET FOOD – and Mauritian street food is among the best in the world. A unique mix of Creole, African, Indian and Chinese influences, the dishes offer bursts of intricate flavours.

Mauritius really is a paradise, with plenty to keep you entertained. So get out there, learn more, experience the culture of Mauritius, work on your tan … and come back to South Africa with some great memories.

Explore more of what Mauritius has to offer…

EXPERIENCE MAURITIUS WITH YOUR FAMILY

You tired, you're stressed – and you need a magical holiday to relax the whole family. A Mauritian holiday is what you're looking for.

The great thing about this wonderful destination? It welcomes the whole family.

You'll see that most of our resorts have exceptional kids' clubs, with complimentary programmes where your kids will be safe and delighted with the huge range of entertainment and activities – for all ages.

Let them play, discover and explore under the supervision of qualified staff who provide world-class service. They'll encounter new cultures and traditions, and make new friends. At some of the resorts, you can choose adjoining rooms so your kids are close by, but separate, giving all of you privacy when you need it. In Mauritius, we understand that a family holiday is what brings your family closer together.

CHOOSE AN ALL-INCLUSIVE PACKAGE

So you've budgeted for a holiday, but you've forgotten to factor in the costs of meals, entertainment and activities – it all adds up.

So the smart thing to do is choose an all-inclusive package in Mauritius – and everything's included.

It's a fixed amount that includes most of the items on offer at the resort: a minimum of three meals daily, a variety of drinks (non-alcoholic and alcoholic) and often other services and activities like water sports and entertainment.

It's the perfect solution. Forget about your wallet and focus on relaxation, dining and a hundred other holiday activities.

SAY ‘I DO’ IN PARADISE

At World Leisure Holidays, we’re big on love and romance and weddings, so we offer a number of picture-perfect wedding packages to help make your big day happen.

They’re really flexible, so you get to choose the kind of wedding you’ve always imagined. From flowers and menu options, to the type of ceremony (religious or non-religious) – whatever your dream, we can arrange it.

PRE- AND POST-WEDDING FUN

We’ll also help you plan activities before and after the celebration. How about booking yourself and your wedding party into the hotel’s spa, for some pre-wedding pampering?

You’ll make treasured memories from the moment you arrive with your loved ones, and you’ll leave with entertaining stories from your big day.

While we take care of the magic, you’ll need to handle the formalities. Send your original unabridged birth certificates to the Mauritian civil status office, eight weeks in advance, and get a certificate from the South African Registrar of births, deaths and marriages stating that you are neither a Mauritian citizen nor a resident.

On the first working day that you’re in Mauritius, you will go to the Supreme Court and appear before a magistrate who will check your birth certificates and passports and ask you to declare that you are not already married.

After three working days, you’ll receive approval from the authorities, and you’ll be free to have your ceremony within 24 hours.

Enjoy your special day.

A HONEYMOON IS A PERFECT BEGINNING

A honeymoon in Mauritius – what bliss! And just the relaxation you need after the months of wedding planning. We don’t think there’s a better place to start your new life together than at one of our exquisite Mauritian resorts, every one of them perfect for romance, relaxation and pure joy.

WLH will help make your honeymoon an unforgettable experience.

We’ll make sure that the two of you are treated like royalty while enjoying the magic of Mauritius together.

Whether you prefer moonlit beach strolls on warm evenings, candlelight dinners, relaxation on a pool lounger, soothing massages or exotic adventure, we can make whatever you want a reality.

Spend lazy hours together, connect and enjoy each other’s company in paradise, surrounded by spectacular scenery, with luxury and comfort on your doorstep.

With the perfection of Mauritius, World Leisure Holidays will make your honeymoon a memorable grand finale to your wedding celebrations, and a perfect start to your life together.

ANYONE FOR A COOKING DEMO?

How about an authentic Mauritian cooking demonstration? Beach Olympics? An Out Of Africa safari? A lobster dinner or an explosive fireworks display?

WE'LL TAKE YOUR PEOPLE EXPLORING

We love organising very popular group excursions outside the resort, taking guests to famous attractions like the Pamplemousses Gardens, The Coloured Earths of Charmarel, the bird garden of Casela, the island of Ile aux Cerfs or shopping in Grand Baie.

Our WLH team would love to help you create the perfect incentive trip. We'll get to know you and your organisation, then figure out what's best for your budget. Then we'll work closely with you to create the perfect incentive to engage, excite and inspire your work force.

From the time you step on the plane, World Leisure Holidays will help to make sure that your group getaway is a truly epic experience.

GROUPS & INCENTIVES

At World Leisure Holidays, we love planning. In fact, we're planning nerds! (And that's a good thing.) Our groups department is staffed with creative, logistical and technical experts. These guys love all the brainstorming and planning that goes into creating group getaways, and they make sure they're packed with innovative, fun and flawlessly managed events.

ANY SIZE, ANY SHAPE

And size wise, we can do it all. Our hotels in Mauritius and our experienced ground handlers are equally comfortable with intimate parties of 16 or big groups of 1 000.

CUSTOM-MADE INCENTIVES

We can tailor-make packages for group travel to Mauritius, across a diverse spectrum of superb resorts. Whether you're rewarding your top achievers, wowing your clients, conducting your annual conference, golfing with your club or travelling in a family or wedding party, we can take care of everything.

WE DO DETAIL

We can arrange an exotic welcome by colourful Sega dancers, or perfumed cold towels and complimentary cocktails.

We'll organise private hospitality desks for each group, and we'll arrange tables, chairs, flipcharts, telephones and equipment for tour leaders.

From branded corporate gifts to customised "pillow drops" each night – we'll handle every detail.

BEACH BARBECUE

Bigger scale events? We do those, too. We can arrange a beach barbeque for your group. Watch your food being prepared at live cooking stations decorated with sails and fishing nets. It's a great group experience.

BUFFETS, RED CARPETS AND JAZZ

Relax with a rum cocktail around a bonfire. Feast from an enormous buffet laid out under thatched kiosks. Finish off your incentive with a glittering gala dinner, where guests are wowed as they make their way down the red carpet, to enjoy aperitifs and canapés on the lawn while enjoying the laid-back sounds of a jazz band.

We'll seat you in a magnificent crystal marquee, decorated with spectacular ice sculptures, elegantly laid tables, awash with pearl beads and ribbons, for an evening of elegance and entertainment.
