Bathsheba is a person of self-esteem / self-importance so Gabriel has intruded into her personal life and is offended. $\sqrt{}$ (2)

1.1.9 Open-ended.

Accept a relevant response which shows understanding of the person that Bathsheba is and her actions, among others:

Yes.

- Bathsheba is more logical and approaches love in an emotional way, otherwise she would have been married to Gabriel only to discover she does not love him.
- She does not marry Farmer Boldwood even though she plays pranks on him and feels responsible for what she does.
- She maintains her superiority over men as a farm owner even after her husband has left her.
- At the end she marries for love which she resisted all along.

(3)

OR

No.

- Bathsheba has had a moment of weakness and ends up marrying an abusive husband through misplaced passion and flattery.
- She is selfish, she does not want to lose Gabriel but she will not love him until at the end she uses him in every way.
- She is the cause of death of her husband and Mr Boldwood's imprisonment.

NOTE: For full marks, the response must be well-substantiated and make reference to the story. A candidate can score 1 or 2 marks for a response which is not well-substantiated. The candidate's interpretation must be grounded in the novel.

AND

- 1.2.1 Mr Boldwood's homestead /house $\sqrt{}$ (1)
- 1.2.2 Boldwood hosts a party on Christmas Eve so that he can propose to Bathsheba and announce the engagement to the people. $\sqrt{\sqrt{}}$ (2)
